Profile

Mr. Sieja's practice is centered on business and corporate law, probate, and estate planning with an emphasis on probate and commercial litigation.

He advises his corporate clients from the formation of their companies to their dissolution and about everything in between. This includes routinely representing his clients in shareholder disputes, non-compete litigation, nondisclosure covenants, post-employment litigation, and contract litigation.

In his probate practice, Mr. Sieja assists his clients, trustees, and fiduciaries with the administration of estates, distribution of probate assets, will contest litigation, attaining conservatorships and guardianships, heir disputes, and family land litigation.

Mr. Sieja also works with his clients in forming their estate plans, including drafting their wills, revocable living trusts, life insurance trusts, durable powers of attorney, and advanced directives for health care.

Mr. Sieja is a registered mediator with the Alabama Center for Dispute Resolution.
